Abstract: Abstract should be written with 12 font size, Times New Roman, justified, single line spacing. Abstract should be not more than 500 words.

GENERAL GUIDELINES

Abstracts should be written according to the below structure including the following headings: introduction, materials and methods, findings and argument and conclusion.

Abstract shall be written in font Times New Roman, single line spacing and 12 font size. Abstracts can contain figures, tables and/or images. Page format should be A4 page size with margins 2.5 cm wide from the right, left, top and bottom. Abstracts should not exceed 2 pages and pages should not be numbered.

Introduction: (Heading Times New Roman, 12 font size, bold)

The introduction section should (1) briefly review the pertinent literature and (2) present the scope and objective of the paper and state the problem.

Materials and methods:

The methodology must be clearly stated and described in sufficient detail.

Findings and arguments:

The findings and arguments of the work should be explicitly described and illustrated. Supporting figure, table and images of the results (no more than one figure and one table) may be included in the abstract.

All the tables, images and figures should be centered. Figures and images should be numbered (see Figure 1 for an example) and figure captions should be placed under the figure or image; as for the tables, they should also be numbered (see Table 1 for an example) and the table header should be placed at the top.

Conclusions:

Conclusions should include (1) the principles and generalisations inferred from the results, (2) any exceptions to, or problems with these principles and generalisations, (3) theoretical and/or practical implications of the work, and (4) conclusions drawn and recommendations.

Keywords: This section should contain maximum 5 words that are written in Times New Roman 12 font size and separated with commas.
